

NONVIOLENCE: The witness of Oscar Romero and the Nonviolence Initiative of the Catholic Church

Tuesday 25 April 7pm – 9pm @
Oxford Place Centre, Leeds LS1 3AX

Come and hear the positive Gospel-based messages coming out of this new initiative within the Catholic Church

Bishop Kevin Dowling is co-chair of Pax Christi International and has a wealth of working for human rights and social justice, especially in Africa, where he is Bishop of Rustenberg in South Africa. Bishop Kevin has been at various Romero commemorations in El Salvador and supports the work of the Romero Trust.

Pat Gaffney is general Secretary of Pax Christi UK. She is a member of the international working group that set up the Catholic Nonviolence Initiative and helped to facilitate the inaugural Rome conference in April 2016. She has spoken at innumerable conferences and is an outstanding contributor to peace work both here and internationally.
