Programme

WEDNESDAY 1ST MARCH

ROGER QUICK (PIANO) WITH GRAHAM BARBER

Music in a lighter vein with raconteur Fr. Roger Quick, plus a few piano duets. Roger was chaplain at St. George's Crypt until he retired last year. He introduces a mouth-watering medley of tunes in traditional and popular styles.

WEDNESDAY 8TH MARCH

JENNY LUCKING (SOPRANO) WITH LILIAN SZTANKOV (PIANO)

Jenny is in her final year of studies at the University of Leeds School of Music. She is joined by Lilian in a programme of favourites by Handel and John Rutter, plus some other popular classical numbers.

WEDNESDAY 15TH MARCH

GRAHAM BARBER (CHAMBER ORGAN) WITH CHRISTOPHER NEWTON

Graham features the chamber organ acquired by the church in 2002. The programme includes some well-known pieces by Bach and Handel disguised in jazzy style, as well as some duos with Chris.

WEDNESDAY 22ND MARCH

DANIEL GORDON (PIANO) WITH GRAHAM BARBER

Daniel plays a varied sequence of piano solos which depict a romantic story in a forest, ranging from a medieval carol tune to stride jazz. He'll also be joined by Graham for some entertaining piano duets.

WEDNESDAY 29TH MARCH

AD HOC BAROQUE: 'THAT SPLENDID SCIENCE CALLED MUSIC'

Ad Hoc Baroque perform music from the turn of the 18th century on period instruments, with readings from noted diarists of the day including Samuel Pepys. Featuring Derek Revill (violin), Fiona Smith (recorders), Jillian Johnson (viola da gamba), and Marc Murray (harpsichord).

WEDNESDAY 5TH APRIL

SAXSHADES

SaxShades present a varied programme of music for four saxophones. If you haven't heard this combination before you are in for a treat! Featuring Debbie Scherer (soprano), Molly Austen (alto), Alison Owen-Morley (tenor), and Sarah Jobson (baritone).

There will be a no-obligation pay-as-you-feel collection at the end of each concert.
